

100 years. 100 countries. 100 million success stories.

As one of the world's largest youth-serving NGOs, JA prepares young people for employment and entrepreneurship. For 100 years, JA has delivered hands on, experiential learning in financial literacy, work readiness, and entrepreneurship. Supported each year by nearly half a million corporate volunteers, and reaching more than 10 million young people, JA is one of few organizations with the scale, experience, and passion to build a brighter future for the next generation of innovators, entrepreneurs, makers, and managers.

Now more than ever.

Technological advances are emerging faster than ever. New industries and automation require new skills. And the largest generation in history will enter the workforce in five years, with youth unemployment already reaching an all-time high in many parts of the world. JA's skill-building programs—for students as young as 5 and as old as 25—are more important now than ever before in our century of innovation and achievement.

Building the skills that employers seek.

JA equips young people from every corner of the world with the employment and entrepreneurship skills to thrive right now . . . and in the future. By building a host of skills and nurturing self-belief, JA prepares young people for the future of work, teaches them how to think entrepreneurially, and ensures that they have the tools to be financially capable adults.

Impact across six continents.

Our 100 million living alumni are a testament to JA's lifelong impact, serving as a global force for good. Many start businesses that serve a social need, solve a local problem, or inspire others to reach their potential. Others donate time and money to their communities. Still others give back to the next generation of young people by volunteering and mentoring.

Snapshot of JA's Impact

Alumni start more companies and hire more employees, and their firms produce significantly larger annual sales than those led by non-alumni.

United Kingdom: Impact 50 Years of Young Enterprise

Alumni are three times less likely to spend more than they earn; they save more and have less debt.

Canada: Making An Impact: Assessing JA Canada's Value Creation

More than 70% of female alumnae believe they can own their own businesses.

Latin America and the Caribbean: Impact of Mujeres Emprendedoras Program

More than 90% of students believe JA prepares them for the future of work and will help them get a better job.

MENA: En Route to Better Employability Skills
USA: Turning Young People of Today into Entrepreneurs of Tomorrow

Alumni credit JA with promoting their understanding of business, influencing their career goals, fostering a sense of self-belief, and enhancing their understanding of how money works.

USA: JA USA Alumni Research Study

72% of students who have participated in JA entrepreneurship education programs plan to pursue higher education.

Asia Pacific: Outcomes in Hong Kong and Indonesia
Europe: Entrepreneurship Skills Pass Self Assessment

Alumni earn a month's wages more in annual salary than non-alumni do, are 40% more likely to become a manager, and are 20% less likely to be unemployed.

USA: JA USA Alumni Research Study

71% of alumni say that it's highly likely they'll have their own businesses within a year.

Latin America & the Caribbean: Impact of Mujeres Emprendedoras Program

The next 100 years.

At JA, we're laying the groundwork to serve exponentially more students by supporting innovation throughout our network, making investments in technology and human capital, and executing partnerships with select organizations that benefit from our unparalleled access to schools and students.

An investment in JA is an investment in the success of the next generation. Your funding allows us to accelerate our growth, support innovations in technology, or sponsor a specific project or initiative.

Every year, JA helps 10 million young people realize their goals.

Visit us at jaworldwide.org/centennial.